Online E learning Portal

In July 2017, E learning portal was launched on Infinity Foundation website. The courses available on this portal would fill the gap between the needs of serious followers who read the books of Rajiv Malhotra and the casual ones who prefer to follow his online talks, articles etc. People who want to learn systematically and don't want to read heavy books would be best served by this portal.

So far two courses have been launched: (1) Introduction to Rajiv Malhotra's key vocabulary & major concepts (2) Swadeshi Indology. The plan is to systematically catalogue all of Rajiv's work in the courses. The team is now busy migrating the system to a new platform that will be bigger and more robust. These courses will be offered for free initially. Generous donations are expected from well-wishers because funding is required to continue this work.

Rajiv Malhotra in Conversation with Sanjeev Nayyar on importance of Deras in Punjab and Haryana

Sanjeev Nayyar & Rajiv Malhotra explain the history and importance of deras in Punjab & Haryana. Contrary to the medias bad image of them, they are vital social movements that serve large segments of population especially from the lower social-economic strata.

This episode begins with the history of Sikhism. It then explains how the British later engineered the community for their own agendas. In the process they sowed the seeds for many present-day problems in Punjab & Haryana. In this context, the deras must be understood as the backbone of civic society at the grass roots. The conversation candidly discusses issues facing the communities and presents some constructive ideas. This conversation can be viewed here
